COMMENTS ON EXAMINER'S AMENDMENT AND REASONS FOR ALLOWANCE

Sir:

In response to the Reasons for Allowance (RFA) in the Notice of Allowability mailed by the Patent and Trademark Office on December 15, 2004, Applicants hereby submit the following comments.

Applicants approve the changes made by the Examiner's Amendment solely to correct typographical errors in the claims to improve antecedent basis. Such corrections do not affect or change any scope of the claims as originally filed.

Applicants object to the RFA as being improper because it merely or essentially repeats the limitations of claims 1, 7, and 15. Moreover, while Applicants agree with the Examiner's determination that the inventions recited in the claims are patentable over the references of record, Applicants do not acquiesce that patentability resides in each feature exactly as expressed in the claims, nor that each feature is required for patentability of each claim.

Respectfully submitted,

Hae-Chan Park,
